

The first of the BBQ steel structures being delivered.
They could have picked a better day

Unloading the steel structures.
Steady now don't drop them.

Look at the water on the greens. It's like a lake.

OK let's make sure we have all the bits and pieces that we should have

Well the suns shining so we better make a start. No time for a smoko yet.

Hey almost up. Didn't think we could do it did you

Well there you go up and standing.
